Children's Missions
STAR AWARD
Highest Level of Achievement
Presented at the District NMI Convention

A beautiful 13” trophy will be presented at the NMI District Convention to each church whose children complete the highest level of achievement.

REQUIREMENTS

1. Read or listen to missions stories in children’s church or Sunday School.
(Recommend teachers use visuals, dramas or other fun methods)
 - 2 or more children’s missionary reading books
 - Additional stories from other sources (Voice of the Martyrs, Alliance, CEF) (director has available)

2. Memorize (2) mission related scriptures:
(same as basic level)

3. Pray for mission fields and specific missionaries.

See Children's Missionary Prayer Cards. Copies and instructions are available.

See demonstration on district website indynmi.info

- Persecuted church (have available six different prayer cards for the (11) extremely persecuted countries)
- Nazarene missionaries (children's prayer cards for Gonzalez family available)
- Nazarene ministries (Jesus Film; Bible Colleges, hospitals, etc) (prayer cards and lessons will be available in the future)

4. Give mission offerings:

- Wheels for Missions children's project

5. Hear a missionary speak/view their display:

- At District NMI Convention (a missionary could possibly meet separately with children)
- In a local church service
- In children's church (most missionaries or the wife will come to children's church 5 – 10 minutes before the morning worship service. They will sometimes bring interesting objects, etc. for the children to see. Dan Duke has an outstanding children's presentation)

Training sessions are planned to demonstrate fun teaching methods and how to easily prepare visuals, dramas, etc. easily. Copies of mission prayers on a child's level are available.
